

Endurance Village Project

Client

Office of Metropolitan Architecture (OMA)

Scope of Work

Architect of Record

Location

Qatar

Types of Activities

Architectural Drainage Electrical
Environmental (sustainability)
Fire Safety
HVAC
Landscaping (hard and soft)
Life Safety
Mechanical
Roads
Security
Structural Telecommunications
Urban Development
Water Supply

Development Endurance Community Village at Al-Hamla area, is an endurance horse racing facility located along the west coast of Qatar. The Ministry of Youth and Sports commissioned the project to host FEI endurance competitions, along with year-round, world-class training facilities. The project features a complex set of programs, including an event venue, competition stables, equine training and veterinary facilities, chalets, and grooms' accommodation.

